

USING YOUR CLUB FUNDING

A guide to how to use funding provided by the Flinders University Student Association (FUSA)

PERMITTED

These are acceptable ways to use your club funding, so go ahead!

RESTRICTED

You need written approval from FUSA before spending funding on these.

PROHIBITED

The club must not spend funding on these under any circumstances.

EVENT SUPPLIES

Supplies to run your event such as food, decorations, etc.

CLUB MARKETING

Signage, banners, merchandise, web hosting, social media promotion, etc.

PRIZES

Prizes for randomly drawn or skill-based competitions (e.g: raffles, tournaments, quiz nights, etc.). Max 25% of annual funding.

OPERATIONAL

Equipment for club activities, stationery, service/software subscriptions, club membership to national bodies, etc.

REIMBURSEMENT

The club may reimburse members for actual costs if they supply a valid store receipt.

SERVICES

Using services such as professional catering, musicians, etc. on campus.

OTHER ORGANISATIONS

Use of funding (directly or indirectly) to support other clubs, businesses or organisations.

GIFTS/DONATIONS

Awards, scholarships, grants, donations or gifts more than the value of $20 or combined total of more than 10% of annual funding.

TRAINING/DEVELOPMENT

Paid training, development or team building not provided for all members of the club (e.g: courses or trips for executive or committee members only).

PAY MEMBERS

Payments to members, families of members or pecuniary interests of members for services, etc.

ALCOHOL/TOBACCO

Alcohol and tobacco must not be purchased using funding from FUSA

POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS

Funding from FUSA must not be used to support any political candidate or party

EXEC PRIZES/GIFTS

Current Executive must not be selected for gifts or awards. May not receive prizes over $20 in value.

UNRELATED EXPENSES

Executive expenses not directly related to club management or activities (e.g: flights for academic conferences)

PAY EXECUTIVE

Payments to the club's executive, families of executive or any pecuniary interest of executive members for services, etc.