

EPSW Course Representative

Position Description

The Role:

Course Representatives in EPSW will perform a vital role in ensuring that students have input and a strong voice in decisions that affect them within the College. Using a partnership approach, Course Representatives will work collaboratively with academic staff to ensure a broad student perspective is considered across all aspects of course design, delivery and review.

Benefits & Recognition:

Course Representative roles provide a unique opportunity to:

- have your voice heard (by channelling broader student views) and enact real change;
- better understand how decisions are made within the College and contribute to those processes;
- further develop your professional skills e.g. networking, negotiation, providing effective feedback;
- make connections and build relationships with staff, students and other influential people; and
- receive points through the Horizon Professional Development Award and a Certificate of Recognition from the University.

Who:

Students who are currently enrolled for Semester 1 and 2 in 2021 in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree in the College of Education, Psychology and Social Work.

There are up to three Course Rep positions available for each year level in Psychology, Social Work, Early Childhood, School of Education, and Continuing Professional Education.

To be eligible for a Course Representative role, you must be enrolled in at least one topic per Semester in the Course/Program (undergraduate or postgraduate) you wish to represent.

Students with a variety of experiences and backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Commitment:

Course Representatives are expected to liaise with students in their discipline and meet with staff during the semester, including the following:

- Meeting with Teaching Program Directors and other Course Representatives at the Student Course Advisory Committee (twice per semester).
- Opportunity to attend Course Quality Advisory Group (CQAG) meetings including reading papers and liaising with students in your College regarding relevant (and non-confidential) agenda items.

Your term would run from your appointment to 31 December 2021.

Training:

You will receive training from FUSA and ongoing support to ensure you know what is expected of you and how to fulfil your role.
